MR. DAVID REES

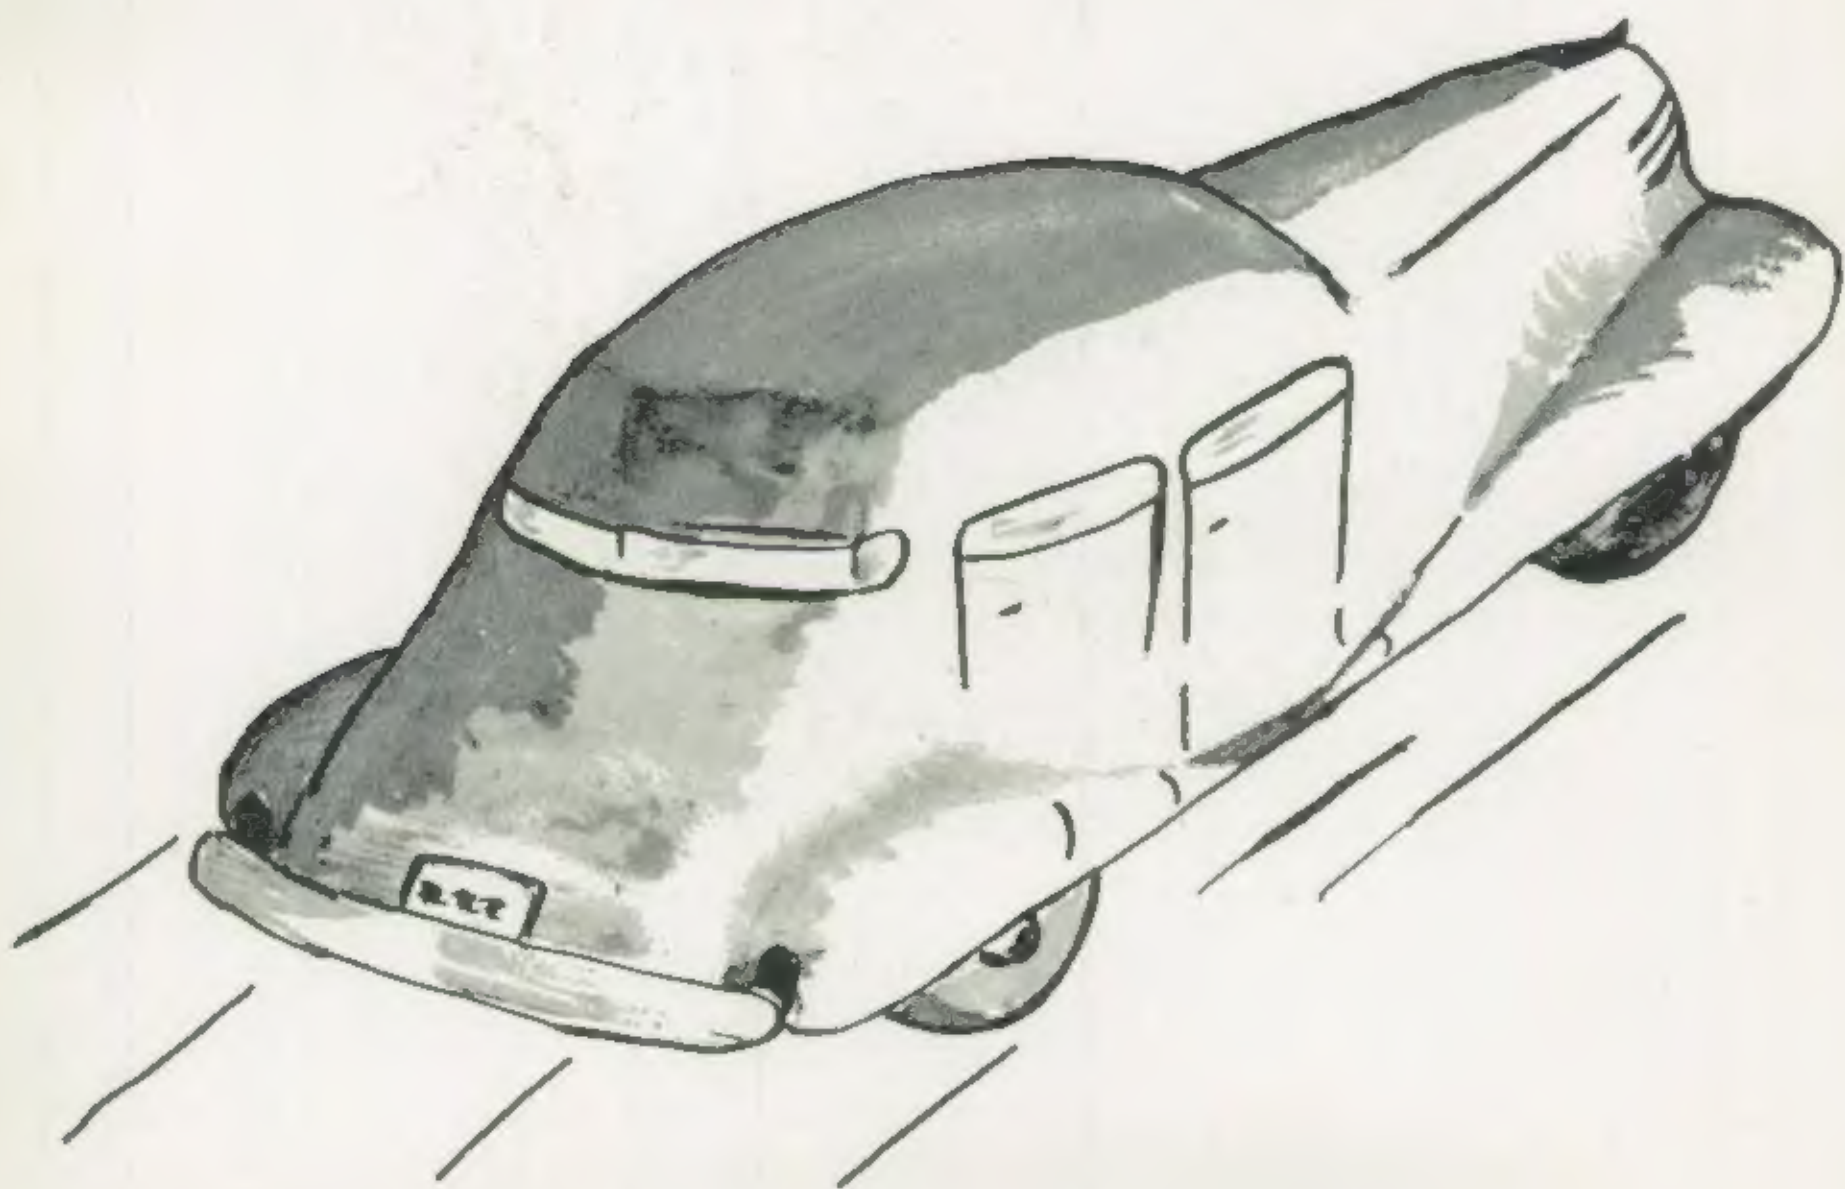

1882 — 1947

In memory of a man who gave willing service to community, school, and young people through thirty years.

In memory of one who was ever glad to serve in the best way he knew.

In memory of one who, more than most of us realize, helped to build Sharon High School.

Secretary H. A. Bishop

Solicitor C. E. Brockway

By legislation, the responsibility of conducting and controlling the local school system is vested in the Board of Education. The men who serve on this board meet monthly to carry out the task of maintaining the high educational level in our schools. Mr. C. M. Musser, Superintendent of Schools, meets with the board in his capacity as their educational adviser. Mr. C. E. Brockway attends the meetings to interpret the school laws and to see that the board complies with the state laws.

What Kind of Education

Our present, to be sure, is no bed of roses. Confusion and conflict abound and much that is terrifying surrounds us. Yet it is here that our problems arise and it is in their terms that our thinking must be done. It may comfort us to dream of the past. Our living must be done, however, in terms of present fact and present problem. There is no escape from this and whatever manner of education we may finally achieve, its abiding characteristic should be that it enables our people to face with courage whatever must be faced confident that they will be able to give form and character to their world.

C. M. MUSSER

In this day and age, no individual can live a life of isolation. Be he of noble birth, middle class, rich or poor, he cannot hope to be a success without having the ability of getting along with people.

There is no better training place for life than our own public schools. It is indeed a world in itself and includes all kinds of future citizens. We have potential leaders in the business world, scientists, tradesmen, theologians, musicians, educators, and home makers. In fact, the future of our country will depend entirely upon how our young people think and act now during their formative years.

So, it is important that we make the most of our associations during the time we are attending school and forget petty differences. In doing so, we may strengthen ourselves for the major issues of life and in turn give strength to others.

S. N. CURRIER

A great hunger lives in the heart of every normal person—the hunger to know what life means, what it is for, where it is going. Persons have the power to hope, to expect, to exercise faith, to look ahead. They cannot be happy if they are “confined” in a meaningless universe. Your educational system seeks to lift you up and give meaning to your plans and desires.

Ode to Sharon High

When the scores were tallied nigh,
While the cheers rose wild and free
We have fought with a will that is more than strength
To bring her victory

Her banners we've raised and unfurled on high
With many a rousing song,
With hugh bonfires and snake dances
We've pledged then our faith full strong

And thus we have changed the old world
Where the old ways were
We've changed the old world
The way the old world is run

Affairs of state and problem
Life's mysteries and fates
You see 'twas all wrong until we came along
And settled it in our debate

'Twas here in our songs and dreams and hopes
We found the way
And now the wide world is a comrade that's loyal and true

But soon 'twill all fade like a fairy tale vision
Of laughter and song and glory
How may we bestow the great debt that we owe
This vision of glory?

Oh, not in good wishes and not in but just in the life that each leads,
So for this our new life we have built a creed
And here is the way that it reads

To walk in the light that's within us,
Each one in his separate plan
With courage and with justice and kindness
Each doing the best that he can

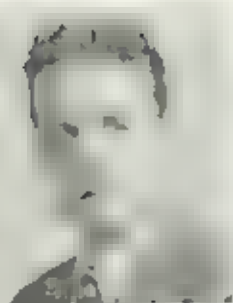

This to thee, dear Sharon High
To be worthy of thy name
This to thee, proud Alma Mater
To thy glory and

Postlude

These years are kin to something. What we do
 And say now must fall into place.
 Part of our life, our town, our race
 And all time. Years ahead, if our beliefs still live
 Or if they be forgotten, somehow they will change
 The lives of future men, until we live again
 In them. Nothing we do is lost.
 Only the great have their thoughts stamped by name.
 The rest of us, together, make the same
 Changes in this world, and we Write, with each other, our own history

The following table shows the results of the regression analysis for the dependent variable "Number of children" (N = 1,000). The independent variables are "Age" (in years) and "Gender" (Male/Female). The table includes the coefficient estimates, standard errors, t-statistics, and p-values for each variable.

Variable	Coefficient	Standard Error	t-statistic	p-value
Age	0.15	0.02	7.5	0.000
Gender (Male)	-0.10	0.03	-3.0	0.002
Constant	1.80	0.10	18.0	0.000

The regression equation is: $\text{Number of children} = 0.15 \times \text{Age} - 0.10 \times \text{Gender (Male)} + 1.80$.

SENIOR PLAY

"Death Takes a Holiday"

The play is a comedy of the supernatural, a story of a nobleman's household in which a mysterious figure, Death, takes a holiday. The play is a comedy of the supernatural, a story of a nobleman's household in which a mysterious figure, Death, takes a holiday. The play is a comedy of the supernatural, a story of a nobleman's household in which a mysterious figure, Death, takes a holiday.

As the play begins, a nobleman's household is filled with queer occurrences. The nobleman's guests are not: strange occurrences in the garden, strange occurrences in the garden, strange occurrences in the garden.

After the nobleman's guests retire, a mystical personage appears in the garden. He is a three-dimensional being, a being who is not a being, a being who is not a being. He is the very human figure, a figure who is not a figure, a figure who is not a figure.

Everyone pleads with him, but he is not a being. The play ends with Death in his own appearance, taking with him the girl he loves, who, unlike every other man, is unafraid.

The theme of the play, that Death is beautiful and right to the few who can understand him, is a theme that is not a theme, a theme that is not a theme.

Written by Arthur Wing Pinero, the play was first produced on the American stage by Walter Ferris.

Basketball, 1947-1948

Starting out with a first string of three veteran varsity men, Steve Garay, Mike Listiak, and Wally Jones, plus the new members of the varsity, Neil Beard, George Bedich and Eddie Tomko, Sharon High School was out to take the Section III crown which had been snatched away from them last year. It looked like a tough season, with Aliquippa Farrell and New Castle boasting of tough teams and resting greedy eyes upon that same crown. So, courageously and with the firm purpose in mind of letting the sports world know that they would be no "push overs," our team took the ball out in the initial game of the season.

The Kittanning High quintet proved to be its same weak self as usual since we downed them, 41-29, Mike Listiak bringing in 14 of those 41 points.

The Donora High Dragons, however, did prove to be such an easy mark. They led most of the game but we finally caught up with them in the fourth quarter; and after Neil Beard's under-the-basket shot attained a three-point lead, Donora brought in another two points on a pivot shot. But it only takes one point to win a game, and we had it. Final score, 28-27.

The Johnstown Trojans also proved to be no easy team to defeat by keeping pace with the Tigers throughout the game, which ended in another one point lead for Sharon, 33-32. Mike Listiak garnered 10 of these 33 points.

The Youngstown South quintet tall and rugged, failed in their attempt to defeat a badly out-of-form Sharon team but did succeed in keeping the winning score low enough to make Sharon win once more by a one point margin, 37-36. Eddie Tomko accounted for 9 of Sharon's points.

The Altoona Mountain Lions were too much for our already tottering Tigers and snapped our winning streak with a 41-34 decision.

The Bradford quintet, however, didn't find Sharon to be such an easy team to defeat. This was evident in the score 55-18, with Sharon garnering the 55 points. Neil Beard, the high point man, scored enough points alone to beat Brad Bradford, with seven goals and three fouls to total 17 points.

The Ellwood City basketeers in the first game of the W. P. I. A. L. competition nipped the Tigers' roaring attack with a 29-26 decision. In a third quarter spurt Ellwood City obtained a three point lead which they retained until the end of the game. Neil Beard was again high point man for the Sharon quintet.

The Ambridge High Bridgers were sent home the evening of January 9 with a 45-24 decision to weep over. This was Sharon's first victory in W. P. I. A. L. competition. Wally Jones came through with 11 of our 45 points to be high score man for the game.

On their own court the Beaver Falls passers chalked up a victory over Sharon on the night of January 13 to the tune of 34-32. This time it was a height advantage that nullified defeat for the Tigers, with a Beaver Falls last minute bucket from under the hoop. Wally Jones was again high scorer, with 8 of the 32 points marked up to his credit.

The Aliquippa Indians, with the idea and means of breaking the hex that they have never won on a Sharon court, were sadly disappointed by a last-second bucket by Eddie Tomko that changed defeat into victory for the Tigers.

by a 32-31 margin. In this game Wally Jones was high scorer with 9 of our 32 points.

The New Castle Red Hurricane won a victory on the evening of January 23 when they played a roaring Tiger team. That is, they won a victory of points; but as far as playing was concerned, it was the Tigers' game. Mike Listiak chalked up 15 of the Tigers' total points. Score, 50-46.

The Erie East quintet, a non-league team, was the Tigers' next victim. The game ended in a victory for Sharon to the tune of 65-13. This time most of the reserves saw action and had a chance to show what they could do. Again Mike Listiak brought in the highest number of points for Sharon, with 11 of the 65 values.

The Farrell Steelers, our able and traditional rivals came to the S. H. S. court only to return home with a 42-36 defeat in their laps. The Farrell threat, Hammond, lived up to his reputation and almost became the cause of a defeat for Sharon, but a third quarter rally gave us a lead which we retained until the end of the game.

The Ellwood City Wolverines didn't prove to be as spectacular on their return game with the Tigers and were dropped by a 54-32 decision. George Bedich came through as high scorer this time, with 16 of those 54 points.

The Ambridge Bridgers were an easy triumph for the Tigers, who defeated them for the second time. Score, 51-22. This game moved the Tigers into sight of the Section III crown which up to this time had been conceded as lost. Steve Garay was the high scorer of this game, with 11 points.

The Beaver Falls quintet finally knocked Sharon out of the title race on the evening of February 10, with a 36-32 victory over our Bengals. Trailing 11 points behind at the official time-out, we came through in a last minute spurt to within four points of tying the score. Steve Garay garnered the greatest number of points for the Bengals, with three goals and three fouls.

On the return match the Aliquippa Indians won a 42-40 decision over the Tigers on the Indians' court. Andy Dobo was the "thorn in the flesh" for Sharon as he poured seven goals and two foul shots through the hoop to account for 16 of Aliquippa's points. The game was the usual thrilling contest which has become to be characteristic of all Sharon-Aliquippa games.

The New Castle Red Hurricane became the sad victims of a very lop-sided victory for the Tigers, with a score of 65-43. Neil Beard and Eddie Tomko paced the Tigers on to their final victory of the season, Neil accounting for 18 of the Tiger's 65 points.

In the final game of the season the Sharon Tigers were prevented from adding another win to their credit by a very determined Farrell quintet. On their own stamping ground the Steelers overcame and defeated our fighting Tigers to even the score for the victory that we won over them on our floor a few weeks before. Mike Listiak came through and succeeded where his teammates failed by putting in seven double-deckers to take high scoring honors for the evening.

With the close of the basketball season Sharon found itself in fifth place among the W. P. I. A. L. contestants. But to the students of Sharon High, the Bengal tigers will always rank first.

LEADERS CLUB

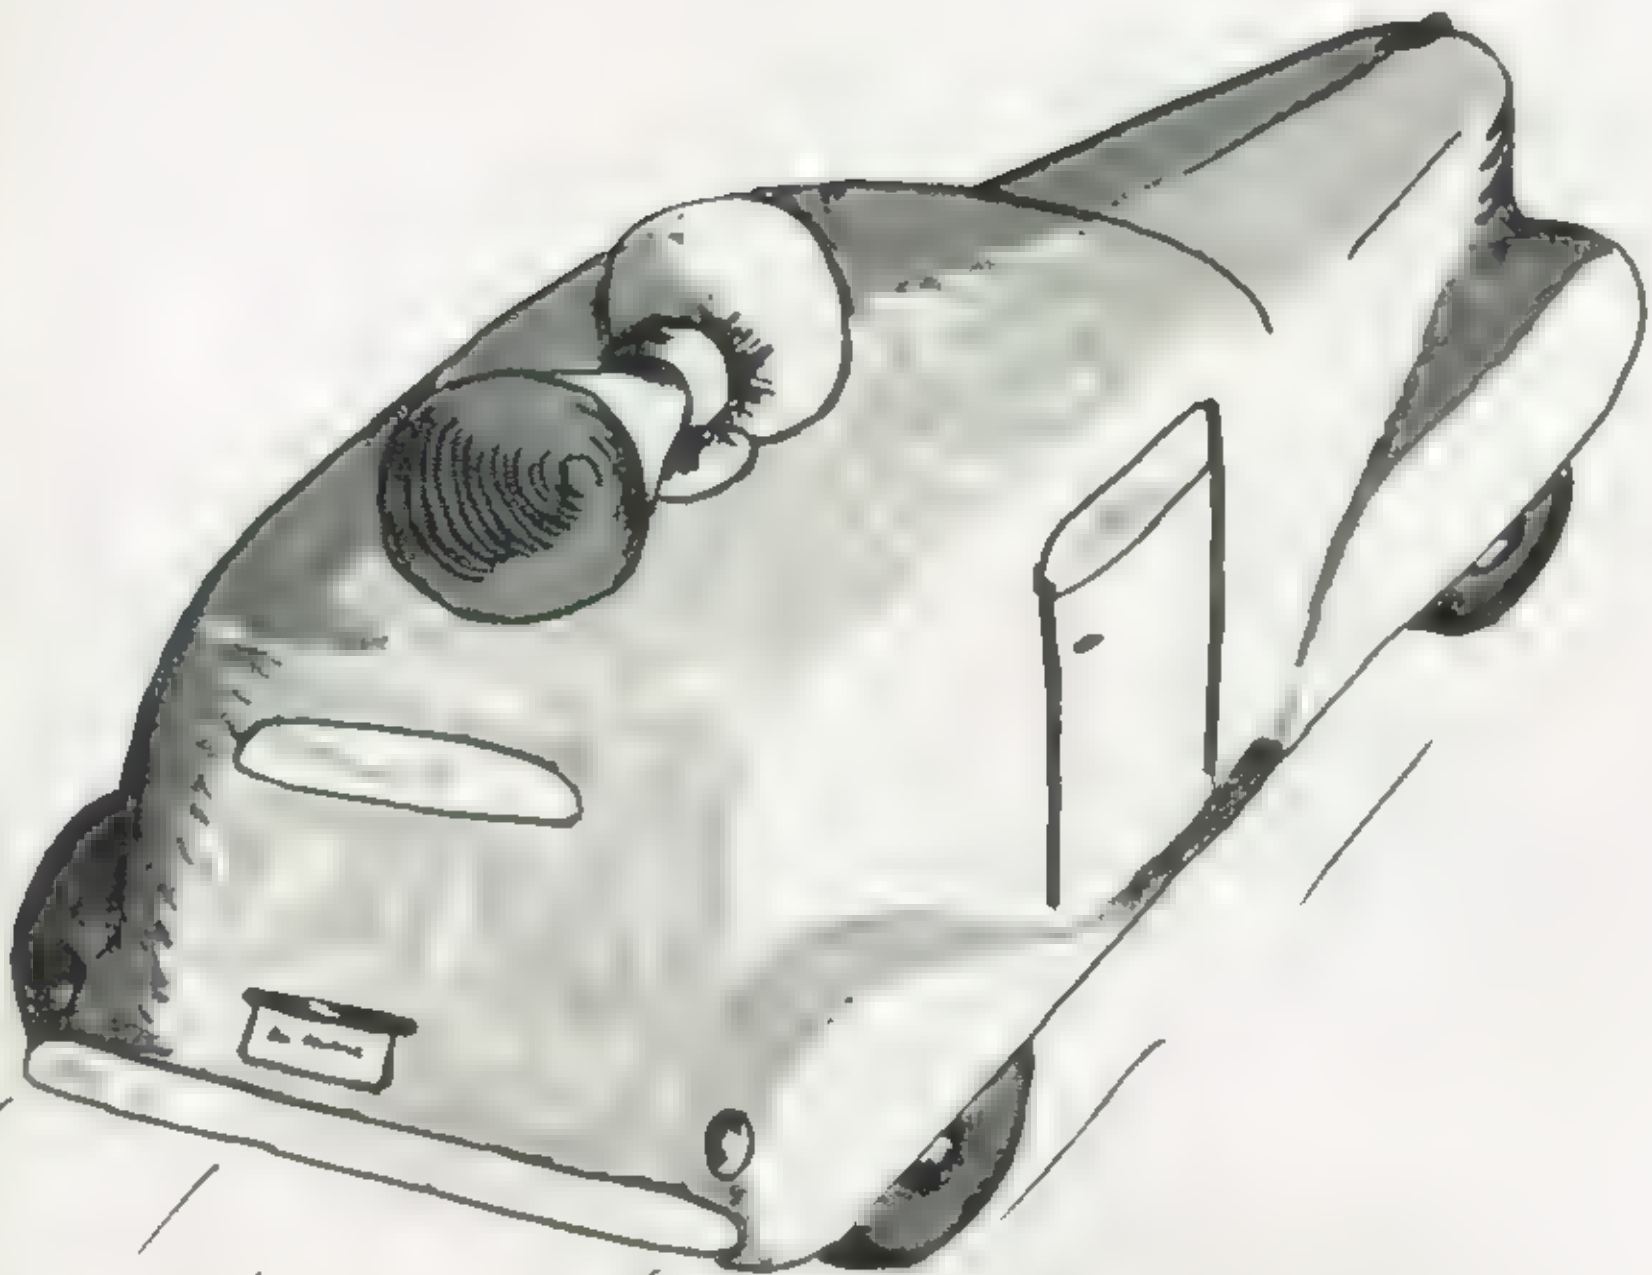

The Leaders Club has always remained its purpose. Members of the club are schooled in the arts of organization, demonstration, and instruction. They are true leaders not only in their gym classes but also among their schoolmates. They will deserve the letters and sweaters they receive after four years of service. And in addition to these awards the members of the Leaders Club receive an invaluable training that long outlasts any material benefit.

CHEERLEADERS

1st Chadderton
2nd Mayberry
3rd Chadderton
Mr. Clare Kopter

Except for the spirit of the team itself, the most important factor in the winning of a game is the support of the spectators. Our cheerleaders are the ones who are responsible for directing and controlling this support. Brimming with vigor and vitality, this group is the Spirit of Sharon High School. They are the spirit in Sharon High.

SHOCK

. . . So Naturally They Bought Their Furniture at Willson's

For one thing, young Mrs. Sharon was raised on Willson's. Her crib, high chair, little rocker, etc., came from Willson's. Her mother's rugs, curtains and draperies. That easy chair they all gave Dad at Christmas, and the adorable dressing table she got for her sixteenth birthday.

Now young Mr. "S" quite frankly didn't know or care where the chairs he draped his adolescent limbs over came from. All he knew about rugs was that he was alleged to track mud on them.

But he knows "Mom" knows. Especially when it comes to making the most of a dollar. And of course she said "Willson's."

So to Willson's they come . . . true to family tradition of solid, substantial Willson furniture true to their budget with the aid of sound Willson values

A rosy, light-hearted adventure. But it's the staunch backbone of America as well. And Willson's are proud to share in so many Sharon homemakings.

MONITORS' CODE OF BEHAVIOR

I will remember that my behaviour reflects the attitude of Sharon High School and that the school is judged by the impression I create

I will take charge of the halls in the vicinity of my post as monitor and will be responsible for the behaviour of the pupils in this area

I will visit the lavatory nearest my post immediately after I go on duty and at my other time will be ready to report any condition as it should be

I will talk to the pupils who are in my area

I will not allow an outsider to go around the school unless I am sure they have received this privilege from the office or are accompanied by some member of the school.

I will rise when speaking with any adult or any woman

I will remain at my post until the monitor who follows me reports for duty.

I will stand during change of classes

I will see that pupils use the proper stairs

If at any time I feel I cannot fulfill my obligation to the school, I will resign my position rather than violate a trust

I will report to the office any condition which I am not capable of handling

If on duty on the first floor, I will allow no one to leave the building without proper authority

I will enforce and abide by the Permit Rules

I will try to be worthy of the trust placed in me and I will not forget that I am responsible to the school to do my best.

THE IDEAL BAKERY

MARCH

Shirley Taylor and Peg Masley can hardly wait for Easter Vacation. What a rush, kids? One day it's sunny and the next day there is three feet of snow. Bill Stafford is learning his Spanish very quickly since the principal teacher is gone. Long the family gathering is in for Alfred Grooms. Ruth Chadderton Evelyn Bobby and Wilda Heasley went to see the "Antigone" at the Youngstown Playhouse. 11th, Happy Birthday to Wally Jones! 25th, Special Greetings to Pat Gadda. Where does Ray Marks get all that gun?? Is love the strongest thing in the world? Or is death? These lines were written on every blackboard advertising for the Senior Play. Norene Benarity was so enthusiastic about these lines that she wrote them in her sleep. Easter Vacation. What a life!

MAY

A beautiful morning in May. A beautiful day. A beautiful day. The Sun is shining. The birds are singing. The flowers are blooming. The children are playing. The teachers are smiling. The students are learning. The parents are proud. The community is thriving. The future is bright. The present is beautiful. The past is forgotten.
We are all here together. We are all part of the same team. We are all working towards the same goal. We are all making a difference.
We are all creating a better world. We are all building a brighter future.
We are all achieving our dreams. We are all reaching our potential.
We are all living our lives to the fullest. We are all enjoying every moment.
We are all grateful for what we have. We are all thankful for who we are.
We are all proud of what we have accomplished. We are all excited about what we have yet to achieve.

Congratulations
